

QUESTION 2

According to the Regulations governing General Hygiene Requirements for food premises and the transport of food: "No person shall be allowed to handle food without suitable protective clothing as specified."

2.1 Below are examples of people working in a hospitality work environment. Used ADDENDUM A provided to state whether it is good or bad hygiene practices. Make recommendations about the personal hygiene of these people working in the hospitality industry.

(20)
[20]